

THE HYERS SISTERS' CONCERT.

This troupe of colored musical and dramatic artists will make their appearance at the Carson Opera House on Tuesday evening, the 25th instant. Their performances are of a cultured and refined character, and have been enthusiastically greeted throughout the East. This is what the Chicago Inter-Ocean says of them: "The entertainment which was given last night at McCormick's Hall, by a select company of colored vocalists and comedians, known as the Out of Bondage Troupe, was one of the best representations of slave life as it existed before the war that has ever been presented to the public. Aside from this fact it is a performance which possesses intrinsic wealth and offers many attractions. The public are not so eager to patronize negro minstrelsy as in days gone by, when darky life and darky eccentricities possessed to the people of the North the irresistible charm of novelty. 'Burnt cork' performances have now degenerated into a sort of medium for old jokes and personal caprices of the performers. Slave life nowadays is the least important feature about minstrelsy. Now there comes along an organization comparatively small in numbers, but composed from the genuine element—every one of them darkies by nature, precept and practice. There is in their fun a mirth and charm that no minstrel troupe, no matter how accomplished its members are, can impart. We get the original article, without adulteration. There is no attempt to be witty or sharp, or to obtrude individual characteristics. The first performance last night was attended by a goodly sized audience, and every one present seemed to enjoy the novel affair with great heartiness. The personalities of the plantation negro were set forth in a real and vivid manner, and the members of the troupe entered into the thing with as much gusto as the audience. They are all excellent comedians in their way, and the musical talent in the troupe will surprise every one that has not heard them. The Hyers Sisters are well known since their introduction to the public by Gilmore at the Boston Jubilee. They are probably the best colored singers before the public. Miss Madah Hyers, the soprano, has a voice that in the upper register is remarkably pure, clear and sound, and its compass, we are assured, is so wide that she can sing the G above the staff. She sings with taste and expression. Musically Miss Madah Hyers is the most noticeable one in the company. Miss Louise Hyers has a good mezzo-soprano voice, which she uses judiciously. Mr. J. W. Luca, baritone, and Mr. Wallace King, tenor, have excellent voices."

AN UNPLEASANTNESS FOR ONE.—It is a truism that there are no sweets without a greater or lesser alloy of the bitter. On Friday evening one of the waiters of the Ormsby House, named A. H. Brown, attended the bal masque of the Carson Guards, and in place of putting in his time rationally by whiling away the irksome hours of the melancholy night in the mazy whirl, he devoted his leisure and coin to Bacchus, which resulted in, to use an inelegant term, his getting drunk. After having devoted his quota of time and money to the aforesaid pastime, he, at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, departed from the scene of festivity and meandered down to the Ormsby. The demon of liquor had at that time evidently taken possession of the better part of his nature, for no sooner had he entered the portals of that house than he began to abuse Low Meyers, the quiet and unostentatious barkeeper of that establishment. The intoxicated reveller went so far as to follow Mr. Meyers behind the sacred precincts of his bar, threatening to annihilate him. At this juncture of the game Mr. Meyers' patience forsook him and he taught the knight of the napkin a lesson which he will not soon forget. It is needless to state that Mr. Brown is not gracing the dining-room of the Ormsby House just now.

THE MOFFATT LAW.—A bill analogous to the "Moffatt liquor law," now in operation in the State of Virginia, has been introduced in our Legislature. Although the adoption of this law may greatly augment the revenues of the State of Nevada, yet it is an arbitrary and cruel one. The embryo barkeeper could not, after becoming full fledged, impress the habitual drinker with his self-importance by wearing a genuine solitaire pin. The full fledged barkeeper cannot, in the event of the passage of that bill, buy out his employer in a short space of time after his engagement. There are other minor, but equally consistent reasons, why this law should not pass. Let the bill be killed in committee.

METHODIST CHURCH.—There will be service this evening at half-past seven o'clock. Subject of discourse: "The Rich and the Poor." Seats free, and all are invited. Sunday school at 2 p. m. No morning service.

RELIGIOUS.—The regular services will be held in the A. M. E. Church. Preaching at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject for the evening, the second coming of Christ.

M. T. WEIR, Pastor.

PREBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Services in the Presbyterian Church to-day at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Subject for evening: "Israel under the Kings."

THE COMMITTEE OF FOURTEEN.

This committee met last evening. All the members were present except Senator Kaiser and Assemblyman Vansickle.

Comins moved to report back to the House the Woodburn bill with the recommendation that it do not pass.

Boardman moved to amend by reporting back the bill with the recommendation that the same do pass.

The motion to amend was lost, all the members voting against it except Williams and Boardman.

Comins' original motion was then put and carried, all voting for it except Boardman and Williams.

Williams then made a motion to amend the bill by striking out the words "five cents," the rates of freight allowed by the bill on wood, lumber, coal, pig-iron, etc., and insert in lieu thereof seven and one-half cents.

The motion to amend was lost, all voting against the amendment except Williams and Boardman.

A COZY RETREAT.—Gibson and Dealy opened their new saloon upon the site of the recent conflagration, on Friday evening. It is, without exaggeration, the neatest and most fascinatingly arranged saloon ever opened in this city. The old style bar has been replaced by elegantly carved sideboards; the walls are covered with exquisite gems of art; and last, but not least, the exhilarating fluids that are to be found there are par excellence.

FROM BODIE.—Passengers on yesterday's Bodie stage report that the recent excitement in that camp has completely died out. The demonstrative mechanics are left out in the cold, new men have taken their places, and everything is serene.

THE BONANZA TAXES.—The Committee on Ways and means were in session yesterday considering the bill now before the Legislature to remit the penalty of $100,000 due this commonwealth from the Bonanza corporations.

THEATRICAL.—The Georgia Minstrels will open at the Carson Opera House on the 6th of March. It is further stated that Clara Morris will soon appear here, providing satisfactory arrangements can be perfected.

PERSONAL.—Matt. Halpin, of the Virginia Stage, and "Shamus O'Brien," the biographer in brief of the members of the Legislature, are in town and at the mercy of the host of the Ormsby.

HOLIDAY.—The profound law makers of this commonwealth, now in session here, had a holiday yesterday out of respect to the anniversary of the birth of the "Father of his country."

AN IMMENSE VAULT.—The Superintendent of the Mint has had an immense vault constructed in the mint building capable of storing $1,500,000 in standard silver dollars.

SENATOR HAINES.—Senator Haines, of Douglass, who recently sprained his ankle, is at his home, and, we are glad to say, getting along comfortably.

FUER FEINSCHMECKER.—Beim Decker giebt heute Eingemachtes Kohl und Schweinefleisch. Der Jim St. Clair ist nicht eingeladen er friert zu viel.

AU FAIT CLUB.—The next party of this club will be given at the Opera House on Friday evening next, the 28th instant.

CLOSED.—The U. S. Mint and banking houses in this city were closed yesterday, Washington's birthday.

NEW GOODS.—Koppell & Platt have just received a new invoice of goods requisite for gentlemen's toilets.

ALWAYS AHEAD.

Instead of waiting for the turn of the season before getting new goods, we take pleasure in informing our patrons that we have just received a Complete New Stock of Dress Goods and exquisite Fancy Goods which we offer at such remarkably low prices that they would induce the most stingy father and husband to dive down for his bottom dollar.

We have received a consignment of One Hundred Cloaks with positive instructions to close them out at any price, and we will do it. MRS. J. SHEYER & CO. Carson, January 28, 1879. 430

THE QUESTION OF PROFITS.

"What is the profit and what the risk?" are the first considerations in every business transaction. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York city, make large profits monthly for their customers, by the new Combination System of operating in stocks at the New York Stock Exchange. By this system they mass together various sums from thousands of customers and with the aggregate become giants in the street, placing their patrons on an equality with the kings of finance, whether the amount invested be great or small. $15 pays $75, or 5 per cent. on the stock during 30 days. $75 makes $445, or 6 per cent.; $200 makes $2,000, or 10 per cent., and so on, according to the market. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s circular (copyrighted and sent free) contains "two unerring rules for success in stock operations," and explains everything. The Brooklyn Journal, April 28th, says: "Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, have many facilities by which their customers secure advantages not otherwise obtainable. Our editor made a net profit of $101.25 on an investment of $20 in their combinations." The standing and responsibility of Messrs. Lawrence & Co. is unquestioned, and they furnish best of reference. Highest market prices paid for all kinds of stocks and bonds and new Government Loan supplied.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE

EFFECTED BY CALIFORNIA ELASTIC TRUSS!

CALIFORNIA ELASTIC TRUSS COMPANY.—W. J. HORNE, Proprietor.—Dear Sir: I feel that I owe it to you and to humanity to write the fact that I have been SUBSTANTIALLY CURED of a bad case of Rupture of thirty years' standing, by one of your incomparable Trusses, which I purchased from you three months ago. I cannot describe the suffering, both physically and mentally, that I have undergone during that period, and now I feel like a new being. I have worn all kinds of Trusses, both Steel and Elastic, and never received any permanent relief until I tried yours. Its simplicity of construction, and facility with which it can be adjusted, and the ease and perfect freedom to the motions of the body with which it can be worn without causing any irritation, are its chief merits, and it is a perfect supporter. I have not had any sign of a return of the rupture since the first day I put it on, and feel that I am perfectly CURED. It is invaluable, and the fact should be known to the world. You can refer any one to me on the subject of their merits. I am, truly yours, ALFRED J. BURKE, Chief Mail Clerk S. F. Daily Evening Post, San Francisco, July 20, 1878.

A Physician's 45 Years' Experience.

COLUMBIA, Tuolumne Co., July 16, 1878. W. J. Horne, Esq.—Dear Sir: For some time past have been in my practice the California Elastic Truss, with entire satisfaction in most cases of complicated hernia of both sexes. During a practice of forty five years I have found no truss that would, with the same ease and certainty, retain the required adjustment, the pressure being always under the immediate control of the patient. The simplicity and ease of application is of itself a guarantee to every experienced physician. I have the honor to remit by mail the amount due, knowing that I contribute to the alleviation of afflicted humanity. Yours, truly, J. P. TIBBITS, M. D.
